"WIN WAR FOR FREEDOM" IS LABOR'S GREETING

Gompers and Other Leaders Issue Message-Overcon-

fidence Menacing Danger. New York, Sept. 2.—"Win the war for freedom" is the keynote of a Labor day symposium of "greetings to the American people" written by Samuel Gompers and other labor leaders and issued last night by the American Allance for Labor and Democracy as a pledge of organized labor's 100 per cent. support of the cause of the republic.

cent. support of the cause of the republic.

"'Win the war for freedom' is inscribed upon the banners of America's workers today in every city and hamlet," wrote the president of the American Federation of Labor," who is now on a mission to England, France and Italy. "It is the message that will be spoken from every platform. It is the song of every heart. It is a war for freedom because only through victory can there be freedom.

"The working people of America are conscious of their vital part in making victory possible and they will do their part, not as a task but a right to share in the work of securing forever that freedom which they prize above all things.

"We need have no recourse to rhet-oric to state our case. The facts are simply stated, but of supreme impor-tance. Our democracy is assailed, our liberty is in jeopardy. Autocracy challiberty is in jeopardy. Autocracy chal-lenges our sacred rights.

"We count it our most sacred duty to win safety for our freedom and our democracy, for only when they are safe ean life give to us its opportunities and its value. 'Win the war for freedom.' To that proposition we dedicate our labor and our lives as Americans and as workers. It is the supreme purpose of our lives on this Labor

Messages of similar tenor were written by the heads of the typographical street railway, mine workers', pattern makers', cigar makers', trainmen's, letter carriers', musicians', railway telegraphers', locomotive firemen's and carpenters' organizations.

A warning against overconfidence based on the retreat of the German army was voiced by George Creel, chairman of the committee on public information, at a "pre-Labor day" meeting of the New York Postoffice Clerks' union here yesterday. The war, he said, cannot be lost in France, but can only be lost in the United States. Continuing, he said:

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

Give Fruit Laxative when cross, bilious, feverish or constipated.

'California Syrup of Figs' can't harm ten'er stomach, liver, bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

against taking them.
With our children it's different.
Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is wellfounded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and howels need cleansing give only daily bowels need cleansing, give only deli-cious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and howels and sweeten the stometh and that a tenseonful the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomor-

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly or all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Re-fuse any other kind with contempt.—

he said, cannot be lost in France, but can only be lost in the United States. Continuing, he said:

"Ultimate victory is as certain 'as the coming of the dawn, but in the very joy of present successes there is a danger that is as menacing as German arme.

"Already from numberless sources we are receiving information that proves that the disintegrating forces of overconfidence are at work. People are saying. What is the use of the new draft law?" and 'What is the use of another liberty loan? The war will soon be over.'

"Germany could well afford to spend millions to spread this point of view. In its essence it is defeatism of the worst sort. It weakens the will to save, to serve, to give, and above all it weakens the will to fight and the will end when we win, and not until then."

Allocates Norwellan Stellar R. Walker Parks. Walker Destings. Question that tears at the very heart of resolve. This war will end when we win, and not until then."

MUST BE CHEERFUL, GERMANS ARE TOLD Editor Declares Those at Home

Should Have "Stronger Nerves."

Amsterdam, Aug. 27.—A remarkable feature of the latest German newspapers is the number of articles rebuking the pessimists and dwelling upon the necessity of those at home not to lose heart

The Taeglische Rundschau laments that a few reverses are sufficient to cause the disseminators of false opinions to emerge from partial obscurity into broad daylight, and deplores the silly rumors that are spreading. "Events on the western front." it admits, "are certainly grave, even mo-mentous, but we must always expect oscillations in the fortunes of war. The oscillations in the fortines of war. The main thing, as the kaiser once declared, is to have stronger nerves." The Cologne Gazette, dealing with a similar theme, says:

similar theme, says:

Must Keep Fighting.

"Even if the sky grows still darker, we must go on fighting. If we become weak and pusillanimous our accomplishments will crumble to dust, and one day it will be said we rise in appearance great, but really are small. If we lose the war, we, our children and our children's children will have perform menial services for foreign. to perform menial services for foreigners. There is no alternative, we must even rejoice in such a case, because there is thus no doubt about the paths that Germany has to follow."

The Lokal Anzeiger says: "The se-

The Lokal Anzeiger says: "The seriousness of the situation is most clearly recognized. It is always fatal to underestimate the enemy. We must admit the shameful fact that those at home are not doing their duty with the devotion and earnestness urgently needed."

Write Optimistic Letters. It summons the people at home to write encouraging letters to those at the front, and calls upon German politicians to be more active than hitherto in strengthening the home front in strengthening the home front by carrying the propaganda to every family and factory.

Meanwhile, military experts such as Capt. Zimmermann, of the general staff, are explaining the reverses at the front by an untiring repetition of phrases such as, "Our aim is not to gain ground, but to annihilate the enemy."

For a Weak Stomach,

The great relief afforded by Cham-berlain's Tablets in a multitude of cases has fully proven the great value of this preparation for a weak stomach and impaired digestion. In many cases this relief has become permanent and the sufferers have been completely re-stored to health.—(Adv.)
